GUESS WHO?!

This aging rock star – he’s 60 – has a staff that’s keeping his fans and family in the dark about his rapidly declining health. His handlers are covering it up by saying he’s having issues with his vocal cords, but it’s way more serious than that.

Behati’s NEW RULES FOR ADAM

Adam Levine is headed to Las Vegas for a residency in 2023, but don’t expect him to put the “sin” in Sin City. His wife, Behati Prinsloo, “has come up with a set of guidelines for him to follow when he’s there,” a source tells In Touch. Adam, 43, who was recently accused of betraying his pregnant wife, 34, with a string of women (he insists nothing physical happened with any of them), “isn’t allowed to go to any strip clubs or have any boozy nights out with his Maroon 5 bandmates — or anyone else, for that matter. Behati’s also insisting that Adam return straight to his hotel room after performing, and she expects him to FaceTime her every night. No excuses!”

STAR SIGHTINGS

TIA MOWRY enjoyed LACTAID milk and cookies at Camp Romper in NYC.

HANNAH WADDINGHAM of Warner Bros. Television’s Ted Lasso signed autographs for fans at the Emmys in L.A.

ALTON BROWN supported his brain health with Neuriva and brain-friendly recipes in NYC.

ALI MANNO disrupted the status quo of laundry day in her Persil ProClean sweatshirt in Nashville.

NATASHA BEDINGFIELD took the stage at NYC’s Cipriani South Street for the 5th annual gala for UNITAS, an organization dedicated to preventing human trafficking and supporting survivors.

Jessica: LOWEST WEIGHT EVER

Jessica Simpson shed 100 pounds in the six months following daughter Birdie’s 2019 birth — and hasn’t been shy about showing it off. But a recent Instagram snap had her followers worried about her shrinking figure. “The shoes look like they weigh more than she does,” gasps a fan, while another comments, “I just hope you’re being healthy, Jessica.” Husband Eric Johnson, 43, is just as concerned with Jessica’s continued weight loss, a source tells In Touch: “He thinks she’s too skinny and fears she’s become obsessed with her weight. She’s under 100 pounds!” The 42-year-old fashion mogul — also mom to Maxwell, 10, and Ace, 9 — “loves the way she looks, though.”
