GUESS WHO?!

This actor claims his bad temper and lots of fighting led to the end of his marriage to a well-known actress, but the truth is, he's gay and closeted, and he wasn't happy from the moment he said, "I do."

Ben & J. Lo: GOING TO THE DOGS

Ben Affleck is in the doghouse! Sources tell In Touch the actor, 51, and wife Jennifer Lopez, 54, are fighting over their many pets. "Between the two of them, they have eight dogs and a cat, so it's a zoo at the house. And none of the dogs are properly trained – they're constantly barking and chasing the cat around the house. It's chaos and driving J. Lo nuts." Especially since she's left to deal with their messes. "She's always nagging Ben to at least pick up their poop. His answer is they should hire people to do it for them. It really bugs J. Lo, because he has more than enough time on his hands right now to do it himself, so in her view he's just being lazy."

ARIANA & ETHAN MOVING IN ALREADY!

The ink isn't even dry on her divorce papers, but Ariana Grande has already made a big life decision. She's moving in with her new beau and Wicked co-star, Ethan Slater. "She's in love with Ethan, so she figures why wait," a source tells In Touch. "Yes, it's fast, but that's how Ariana operates – she jumps into things." News of their romance broke a mere three days after it was announced that Ariana, 30, was splitting from her husband, Dalton Gomez, 28. Ethan, 31, who plays a munchkin in Wicked, also left his spouse, Lilly Jay, to be with Ariana. "He and Ariana never looked back," says the source. "They can't wait to live together."
