"Classical string instrumentation with a sizzling twist. [...] Vitamin String Quartet played many favorites and rocked the house."

MICHAEL KORS

"There's a fabulous quartet called the Vitamin String Quartet, and they do all of your favorite pop songs in a very chamber music, classical way."

BRIDES

"We're obsessed with VSQ Performs Lady Gaga [...] by Vitamin String Quartet, a classical group known for rock and pop covers that don't sound like they belong in an elevator. (Really!)"

Entertainment WEEKLY

"I'm a sucker for instrumental song covers (strings, especially) and have been known to tear up when I am particularly moved. This has been achieved by every song ever covered by the Vitamin String Quartet."

"...it certainly squelches the prejudice that anyone who picks up the violin is a stuffy, uptight snob."

LA WEEKLY

"But the cover that struck us immediately was [VSQ's] take on No Age's 'Eraser'."
