

BRING ON THE CAKE

Book your kid's birthday at one of New York's coolest party
venues! By Jaime Brockway

TLB MUSIC

The Upper East Side music mecca customizes parties to your little one's favorite songs and theme of preference—jungle boogie, rock & roll and baseball bash, for instance—and all partygoers can jam on mini instruments. TLB Music also has a playroom—with a clubhouse, a tiny rock-climbing mountain and a play kitchen—plus extras such as a magician, character visits, face painting, glitter tattoos and party favors. All parties include Two Boots pizza and staff setup and cleanup.

→ 266 E 78th St (212-744-0404, tlbmusic.com). $780-$995/12 children, $25/additional child up to 6 children. Ages 1-6.

↑ ROCK & ROLL PLAYHOUSE AT BROOKLYN BOWL

Tote your cool kid and her friends to Williamsburg for an hour-long concert where the group can jam to live music. The band will sing "Happy Birthday" onstage, and the birthday rock star gets a signed copy of the show's set list. Past themes have included "The Music of New Orleans" and "Outlaw Country," with Johnny Cash and Willie Nelson covers. Three packages cover admission and cupcakes, and two include Blue Ribbon French bread, pizza and juice.

→ 61 Wythe Ave (718-963-3369, therockandrollplayhouse.com). Sun noon-2pm. Prince package: $1,300/10 children and 10 adults, $25/additional child, $15/additional adult; Bowie: $1,600/15 children and 15 adults, $40/additional child, $15/additional adult; Elvis: $1,700/10 children and 10 adults. Maximum 40 people. Ages 1-10.
